

AVAILABLE FOR LECTURES TO SENIORS! TIM BRYCE

Author of "Tim's SENIOR MOMENTS"

Author, writer, and businessman Tim Bryce is now available for talks to senior groups. Tim is the author of the new book, "Tim's Senior Moments," a vast collection of essays celebrating the human spirit as we age. It is a great reading companion for seniors as it will make them laugh, think, and bring back many memories. It contains both humorous and serious columns describing aging, history, nostalgia, the nuances of life, athletics, and more.

Professionally, Tim has been a management consultant who has worked with all types of companies, large and small, to solve their systems needs. He has authored fourteen books. In addition to "Tim's Senior Moments," he has written books for management, technology, morality, fiction, and politics. He has written for the Tampa Tribune, The Huffington Post, News Talk Florida, and trade periodicals from around the world. He has lectured extensively and is often booked as a guest commentator on talk radio. His audio columns can be found on the Internet, as well as his blog timbryce.com

Mr. Bryce is based in Tampa Bay, Florida (Palm Harbor). He can be contacted at:
